Dean's Column

Hot! Remember August? Yes, but this is October, it is still hot – PipingHot. Once again there is a converging of guest organists from around the world who will inspire and enrich our lives. Besides hearing their performances it will be possible to benefit from their masterclasses. While these performances and masterclasses will extend into November, also scheduled that month is the TCAGO member's recital, which will explore the talents of our local performers.

Over the past one hundred years the Twin Cities has been a place rich in musical performances and memories. There have been guest soloists and conductors with the Minnesota Orchestra and the Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra, recitalists brought in by the University of Minnesota 'Artists Course' and the Schubert Club, and in our own field, guest organists of all stylistic and aesthetic approaches, as well as masters of the choral arts and church music. The Twin Cities can also boast about the number of wonderful organs that can be heard on a regular basis, as well as some from the past that are awaiting resurrection.

As I read my September column in Pipenotes, I was shocked to read that I had congratulated Priscilla Franken for having graduated from the Board. Well, you can see from the list of board members she is still here. She and Mari Lyn Ampe have agreed to be co-chairs of the Hospitality Committee. The work of this committee is expanding into many areas of the guild's activities and it will be rethinking its relationship to all of our members. If you would like to join them in this exciting new approach, please contact them to let them know of your interest.

There is an updated list of committees and committee members printed next to this column. You will notice that some of the committees have no names attached to them. If you have an interest in volunteering for any of those committees, please let me know. Your work will be of value to TCAGO and its members.

The brief questionnaire included in this edition of Pipenotes concerns the broadcast time on MPR of the Pipedreams program. Please fill it out and send it in. We need to know the views of ALL the membership. Thanks.

October 30, Saturday

10 AM - a workshop for organists (public invited) featuring Swedish recitalist Gunnar Idenstam at the American-Swedish Institute (2600 Park Avenue South) in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Co-sponsored with the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Mr. Idenstam will demonstrate his approach to interpreting Swedish folk tunes into keyboard composition and performance. He will do so using recordings of Swedish folk tunes, alternating with piano. The workshop will be followed by a luncheon of open-faced sandwiches, soup, light dessert, and coffee. Cost of the workshop and luncheon is $18.00.

November 13, Saturday (two events, equally intriguing...plan to spend the day!):

9:30-11:30 AM - a workshop on improvisation featuring American recitalist Tom Trenny (winner of the AGO Improvisation Competition in 2006) at Bethlehem Lutheran Church (4100 Lyndale Avenue South) in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Sponsored by the Twin Cities chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Free admission, public invited. Should you wish to participate as a performer, contact Maria Bucka 612-312-3411 or mbucka@bethlehem-church.org. Trenny also plays a public concert at the church on Sunday, Nov. 14 at 4 PM.

2008 National Convention Funds Committee – 08/12/10

In 2008, the TCAGO hosted the American Guild of Organists National Convention in the Twin Cities. The net profit for the TCAGO from that convention was $151,516.73. Before the 2008 National Convention's steering committee meeting was disbanded, the recommendation to the TCAGO board was to wait one year and then appoint a committee consisting of the National Convention Chair, the Treasurer, a member of the board, the Board Dean and others as needed to recommend the disposition of the profits that were earned from this convention.

On March 22, 2010 the TCAGO board directed Bill Stump to form this committee and make a recommendation about how the 2008 National Convention money should be utilized. Members included Bill Stump, Convention Chair; David Geslin Treasurer; James Callahan, newly elected TCAGO Board Dean; Tom Ferry, TCAGO Board Member; and Dianne Jelle, TCAGO Board Member. All were participants in the AGO National Convention.

This committee has decided to take a comprehensive view of our financial situation. Their unanimous recommendation is to allocate the 2008 Convention Funds that total $151,516.73 as follows:

$15,000 for special projects to be administered by a Special Project Committee that would review proposals for the dispersal of the funds.

$13,000 to eliminate the Chapter operating deficit.

$10,000 for a Board reserve. This will help the board smooth out some of the ups and downs in the investment money they use to balance the operating budget.

$113,516.73 to be added to the 1980 Convention Endowment monies that currently total $72,874.00. This will result in an endowment fund totaling $186,390.73 that will generate income for many years that will contribute to our mission.

This committee recommends creation of an investment committee that would oversee our investments. This committee should consist of the TCAGO Dean and Treasurer, one other executive Board Member, and 2 members not on the board.

This proposal was unanimously adopted by the TCAGO board of directors on August 23, 2010.

This committee also reaffirms the TCAGO Investment Objective Statement:

TCAGO Investment Objectives

Adapted by the Executive Board on August 23, 1993

The Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists has a portfolio of invested assets accumulated from past convention surpluses, special contributions and investment earnings. The Executive Board of the TCAGO would like to treat this portfolio as an Endowment. The investment objective is to maintain the current value of the portfolio (indexed by inflation), and to allocate the excess investment returns for uses determined by the Board or a designated committee.

(At its August 23, 2010 TCAGO Board meeting, this report was accepted and approved unanimously.)

Massimo Nosetti in Recital

By Steve Gentile

Massimo Nosetti will be playing an organ recital at the Church of St. Helena, 33rd Avenue at 43rd Street in Minneapolis on Sunday, October 17 at 3:00 pm. This program will be part of Piping Hot III and his fourth recital at St. Helena. He has played in our area perhaps 10 times, and his program should not be missed. He played the inaugural recital at St. Helena 20 years ago when the additions were made to the organ. Nosetti will also be presenting a workshop/master class/meet and greet at the church on Friday evening, October 15 at 7:30 PM. This is free. If you would like to play for this session, please contact Steve Gentile at genhen70@msn.com. Any literature is acceptable, but something Italian might be interesting, perhaps Bossi who will be having a centenary in 2011. The church is handicap accessible. Donations will be accepted at the door for the recital.

Massimo Nosetti was born in Alessandria, Italy in 1960, studied organ, composition, choral directing, and polyphonic composition at the National Conservatories of Turin and Milan, and later studied organ with P. Pidoux and J. Langlais. Currently, he is Professor of Organ and Composition at the National Conservatory in Cuneo; since 1981, he has been titular organist at the Basilica of Santa Rita in Turin. Also, from 1979 to 1994 he was Director of Music at the Turin Cathedral.

He frequently gives organ recitals, lectures and master-classes in all European countries - Russia, the USA, Canada, Mexico, South America, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, and has composed and published many works for organ, choir and orchestra. A collection of organ pieces, "A Portrait of M. Nosetti," has recently been released by ANI-MUS Music Publishing (G.B.). His "Ecce Lignum Crucis," an orchestral work commissioned for the exhibition of the Holy Shroud in 1998 and 2000, has been performed and recorded by the RAI- Italian Radio Symphonic Orchestra.

He also is interested in the aspects of organ-building and church music as a member of the Diocesan Commission of Sacred Music and as a consultant of the National Commission for Sacred Music. From 1999 to 2004 he was also Vice-President of the Italian Association of St. Cecilia and at present, he is Dean of the organ department of this Association.

In 2005, he was appointed titular Cathedral organist by the Archbishop of Turin. Massimo Nosetti has made organ recordings for Radio Vaticana, RAI (Italy), ORF (Austria), RIAS (Germany), Radio Belgium, NHK (Japan) as well as 31 CDs for the labels of RUSTY RECORDS, BNL, SYRIUS, ECO, ELE-GIA, CARRARA with repertoire mainly focused from 19th Century to the present day.

Birthday greetings from Mayor Chris Coleman.

It is my pleasure as the Mayor of Saint Paul to extend congratulations to the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists on their 100th Anniversary. Saint Paul is proud of all the various groups and guilds who call us home. I am unable to join you on this day of celebration but hope it is a great event.

It is a wonderful thing that you can gather at the historic St. Johns Church where you held your first public program. I hope the beauty of the organ music, the beauty of the venue and your fellowship makes for an unforgettable time. So I wish a very happy birthday to the Twin Cities Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Congratulations,

University of Minnesota Organ Alumni Showcase Recital at Northrop Auditorium

By Dean Billmeyer

Organ alumni of the University of Minnesota will appear in recital on the historic 108-rank Æolian-Skinner Pipe Organ in Northrop Memorial Auditorium at the University Tuesday, October 12, 2010, at 7:30 PM. The recital is the second of four organ events at Northrop this fall, as the university prepares for the renovation of the hall and organ starting in 2011.

Currently in good playing condition, the Northrop organ is nonetheless a challenge for performers: the proscenium "shell" installed in the 1960s blocks much of the sound that reaches the player. But the organ sounds excellent to the audience, and this recital may well be one of the last opportunities to hear this great organ in its original setting. The University plans to close Northrop in January 2011 for renovation: however, while the Board of Regents has approved a schematic design that includes the organ and has authorized the project to proceed to design development, final approval of the project will not occur until a final financing plan is in place.

Northrop Console

Performers at this special Showcase Recital will include alumni Ames Anderson, Leonard Danek, Laura Edman, Allan Mahnke and Mary Newton, and the program will include music by Buxtehude, Bach, Mendelssohn, Dupré, Vierne and others. Sponsored by the Friends of the Northrop Organ, the recital is free and open to the public.

For directions to Northrop Auditorium at the University of Minnesota, see <http://www1.umn.edu/twincities/maps/NMA/>. 🎵

She has performed at regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the National Association of Pastoral Musicians, the Hymn Society and the Organ Historical Society.

As an ensemble musician, Dr. Luedecke performs with, and is a founding member of the Millennia Consort, which features the Presidio Brass Quintet, percussion, and organ, and Millennia Too! with oboe/English horn and organ/harpsichord. Millennia Consort, California's premiere "organ plus" ensemble, is one of the finest ensembles with organ, brass quintet and percussion in the United States. As a recording artist, Dr. Luedecke is featured on numerous CDs and has been heard many times on the nationally syndicated radio show Pipedreams. Dr. Luedecke completed the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Organ Performance at the Eastman School of Music as a student of David Craighead. She is currently Associate Organist at St. James by the Sea Episcopal Church in La Jolla, California. This program includes music for oboe/oboe d'amore and organ with compositions by Bennett, Hirten and Trapp. A freewill offering will be received and a reception will follow. 🎵

Christopher Herrick – International Concert Organist Wayzata Community Church, 125 E. Wayzata Blvd., Sunday, October 24 at 3:00 PM

By Diana Lee Lucker

The Music Series at Wayzata is proud to host Christopher Herrick, organist par excellence. Since 1984 Herrick has devoted himself entirely to performance in recital, recording and broadcasts. He performs regularly both as a soloist and with orchestras to enthusiastic audiences and critical acclaim throughout the world. Concert tours take him to continental Europe, North America, Australia and New Zealand. He is known for his all-encompassing repertoire, scrupulous musicianship and quick rapport with audiences everywhere.

His 40 recordings for Hyperion have become a benchmark and include the complete works of Bach. His concerts are known for their fresh and interesting programs; audiences always enjoy his interesting commentaries.

The Program:

Triumphal March - Hollins
Handel in the Strand - Grainger
Trio Sonata #4 - Bach
Second Concert Study - Yon
Variations on "Old Folks at Home" - Buck
Sonata in D minor - Guilman

The concert is free and all are invited to a 'meet the artist' reception following the concert. For further information contact Diana Lee Lucker:

Gunnar Idenstam plays at Central Lutheran

By Carolyn Diamond

On Friday, October 29, Swedish organist Gunnar Idenstam will present a recital at Central Lutheran Church in downtown Minneapolis at 7:30 PM as a part of Central's annual Organ Symposium. In addition to works by Bach and Ravel, Idenstam will present a series of traditional Swedish folk tunes in his own arrangements. Improvisation will also be a part of the program. A free-will offering will be received, and parking in Central's parking facility will be validated. A reception follows the program. More information: (612) 767-9101. www.centralmpls.org.

Gunnar Idenstam

The symposium continues the next morning (Saturday, October 30) with a lecture/demonstration at the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis at 10:00 AM during which Idenstam will demonstrate his approach to interpreting Swedish folk tunes into keyboard composition and performance. The workshop will be followed by a luncheon of open-faced sandwiches, soup, light dessert and coffee. Cost of the workshop and luncheon is $18. To register, call (612) 871-4907.

Gunnar Idenstam is a concert organist, composer and folk musician. He comes from a background of classical music, but has a "distant love relationship" with the folk and symphonic rock of the 1970s and has brought these influences into the context of organ music. He studied at the Royal College of Music in Stockholm and then studied the virtuoso

French tradition in Paris. In 1984 he was the first, and to date, the only musician from northern Europe to win the prestigious international competition in improvisation, the "Grand Prix de Chartres." Since 1986 he has pursued an international career as a concert organist.

Central Lutheran is located at 333 South Twelfth Street in Minneapolis. The American Swedish Institute is located at 2600 Park Avenue South in Minneapolis. ♪

ISABELLE DEMERS at AUGUSTANA LUTHERAN

By Dee Ann Crossley

On Friday, November 5 at 7:30 PM, organist Isabelle Demers will perform at Augustana Lutheran Church, 1400 South Robert Street, West St Paul.

Isabelle Demers

A native of Québec, Ms. Demers is rapidly becoming recognized as one of North America's most virtuosic organists. She received her Master's degree from The Juilliard School in New York City, where she is currently completing doctoral studies with Paul Jacobs. She has been a prize-winner and finalist in several international competitions in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Isabelle Demers wowed the audience as a featured performer at July's national convention of the American Guild of Organists in Washington D.C. Concert reviews of other performances have said: "Stunning, breathtaking" (La Presse, Montreal). "Her riveting performance combined bold rhythmic drive with the sensitivity of a refined musicianship and a passionate, colorful interpretation of the music." (Suffolk NY Chapter AGO). "Daring and fresh. . . interpreted with infinite poetry. . . mind-blowing Toccata confirmed her tremendous talent." . . . "With her idiomatic style and her solid technique, Isabelle Demers is an artist outside the norms, or beyond any competition." (Les Amis de l'orgue, Quebec City)

Her program at Augustana includes:

J.S. Bach - Prelude and Fugue in D Major BWV 532
Sergei Prokofiev - excerpts from Romeo and Juliet
Max Reger - Fantasy on the Chorale "Hallelujah! Gott zu loben" op. 52 #3
Edward Elgar - Allegro Maestoso, from Sonata in G Major
Henry Martin - Prelude and Fugue in f# minor and A Major
Rachel Laurin - Toccata, from Symphony #1 op. 36

Augustana's organ is a Glatter-Götz/Rosales (2005) with 47 ranks.
